

SNC • LAVALIN

SNC-Lavalin, has been awarded a public-private partnership (PPP) contract by the Government of New Brunswick for the design, construction, commissioning, financing and certain operation and maintenance functions of the new Restigouche Hospital Centre for psychiatric care in Campbellton, New Brunswick. As a result of obtaining a new contract, SNC-Lavalin has the mandate to build the Restigouche Hospital Centre based in Campbellton, New Brunswick.

This large scale construction project is a unique opportunity to work with qualified professionals on a 3-year project.

Estimator – building & civil

Responsibilities:

- Prepare a potential materials, labour and equipment cost estimation necessary to successfully carry out a construction project according to proposals, plans, estimates and specifications
- Carry out quantity surveys for various disciplines
- Set and maintain proposals, control and report systems and procedures
- Prepare cost and expense statements and estimates, at regular intervals, throughout the duration of the project
- Prepare and maintain a list of suppliers, contractors and sub-contractors
- Communicate with engineers, architects, owners, contractors and sub-contractors in order to prepare cost-effective feasibility studies regarding changes and adjustments to cost estimates

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering, DEC in Civil Engineering Technology or any equivalent studies/experience combination
- Minimum of 5 years of experience in estimation for heavy civil works (institutional building, concrete structure, etc.)
- Good knowledge of Word, Excel,
- Job site experience, an asset
- French, an asset

Send your resume at:

mariechristine.ruest@snclavalin.com